Disclosure: In most cases, the credentialing process with the individual carrier takes approximately 4 - 6 weeks, yet in some unique situations; it could take twice as long. Time extensions are dependent upon the information requested to be contracted with the carrier and they type of services you provide. In the event that the request to contract (credentialed) is denied, we are willing to provide an appeal of the decision based upon the reason for the denial. We will also assist with the re-certification process as required on a bi-annual basis or longer, by the carrier.

I, _____ (Client, print) have reviewed the information provided above and agree to the carriers selected for credentialing purposes. I also understand that there are no guarantees of being approved for direct contracting with the carriers and therefore release Rill Unique Enterprises and its employees for any liability of non-acceptance.
